

High Adventure Boy Scout Camps:

Western Los Angeles County Council

<http://bsa-la.org/>

(818) 933-0130 or

(818) 785-8700

<http://bsa-la.org/>

Camp Emeral Bay

<http://youwillexplore.com/home.html>

Located on Catalina Island, Emerald Bay offers an outstanding location for your long-term camp. Read the High Adventure Guide for programs offering high adventure experience Exploring, Canoeing, Oceanography and SCUBA diving.

Sierra Expeditions

<http://sierraexpeditions.bsa-la.org/>

Based in the beautiful Sequoia National Forest of California, Sierra Expeditions offers guided backpacking, mountain biking, horse back riding, rock climbing and much more for Scouting units and individuals through the Sequoia, Golden Trout Wilderness, and Kern River Valley.

Log Cabin Wilderness Camp

<http://www.logcabincamp.org/>

Features COPE, a Sierra Nevada Mountain Man Program, a Log Cabin Peak Bagging Program, and approximately 17 different treks rated from leisurely to strenuous.

Soap Creek Pass High Adventure

The Greater Yosemite Council

<http://www.bsa-gyc.org/sections/Camping/mensingersoapcreek>

This program is designed to challenge young people with a variety of exciting and adventurous program elements. The High Adventure Program includes: COPE, bicycle hikes, sailing, climbing, black powder shooting, pistol shooting and wilderness survival.

<http://www.bsa-gyc.org/sections/Camping/mensingersoapcreek>

Las Vegas Council

Camp Del Webb High Adventure Base

<http://www.doubleknot.com/openrosters/ViewOrgPageLink.asp?LinkKey=8325&orgkey=1340>

7220 South Paradise Road

Las Vegas, NV 89119

(702) 968-8138

Del Webb High Adventure Base is located just north of Zion National Park in the mountains of Southern Utah. If your boys (13 years and older) want to rappel, mountain bike, canoe, kayak, swim, fish, hike, mountain man and backpack among the endless forests of pines, firs and aspens, then Del Webb is the place to be. Year round residents of bear, cougar, deer, and elk await to share with you a great mountain top experience. Challenge yourself with a hike through Zion's Subway.

Utah National Parks Council

<http://www.utahscouts.org/>

204 North 1000 East St. George, Utah 84770

(435) 628-5172

Beaver High Adventure Base

<http://www.utahscouts.org/openrosters/vieworgpagelink.asp?orgkey=290&linkkey=32744>

In 2010 Beaver will convert to a fully customizable high adventure base camp where units can choose the days and activities of their choice through their registration. Come as many days as you want (from one to six or more). Teams can select from the following day-long activities: COPE, Horse Trek, Climbing-Reppeling, Three Peaks HIke (24 miles, 10,500ft. in one day), Camelot. After dinner activities include: Frontier, Shooting sports, Mountain bording, GPS Course.

Entrada High Adventure Base

<http://www.utahscouts.org/openrosters/ViewOrgPageLink.asp?LinkKey=21841&orgkey=290>

Moab, Utah

Based in the famous Moab desert. Activities include Climbing and reppelling, Mountian biking, White water rafting on the Colorado river, shooting sports (Shotgun, blackpowder and archery) and Sight seeing such as the famous Arches national park.

High Adventure Providers:

High Sierra Horsepacking:

Clyde Pack Outfitters

<http://www.clydepackoutfitters.com>

P.O. Box 472 Clovis, CA. 93613

(559) 298-7397

This western Sierra horsepacker takes you and your gear to your selected camp site and then returns with the riding and pack stock. You just let the packer know when you would like to return or if you would plan on backpacking out. Areas serviced are the Chain Lakes, Marsh, Chimney and Woodchuck Lakes, the 13 Dinkey Lakes, Helms, Post Corral and Woodchuck Creeks, Crown Valley, and the North Fork of the Kings River.

Kern River

The Kern River and the surrounding area provide a multitude of activities that can easily be tailored to the physical level of your scouts and to the size of your bank account. You can do any or all of the following there: White water kayak school. White water rafting and inflatable kayaking. Mountain biking, fishing, hiking, visiting the giant redwoods, swimming, water skiing and many other things. You can camp in nice campgrounds with bathrooms and showers or you can camp free in the primitive camping areas. One of the best guide companies there and one that owns it's own campground is Mountain and River Adventures.

Mountain and River Adventures

11113 Kernville Road

Kernville, CA 93238

Phone: 760-376-6553 or 800-861-6553

<http://www.mtnriver.com/index.htm>